33RD ANNUAL MEETING

MAKING CONNECTIONS. IMPROVING LIVES.

24

Let's celebrate!

In the tapestry of Baltimore's social landscape, there are moments when the threads of our collective efforts converge, creating a vibrant picture of progress and possibility. Family League's 33rd Annual Meeting is one such moment—a beacon of hope in our ongoing journey to uplift our city's most vulnerable.

As we approach our cornerstone event, I find myself reflecting on the profound impact of our work. Every day, in classrooms, community centers, and homes across Baltimore, our grantees and partners engage in the hard-won battles of social change and community impact. These are the unsung heroes—social workers, educators, and community leaders—whose dedication often goes unnoticed, yet whose impact reverberates through generations.

Our Annual Meeting is more than a gathering; it's a testament to the resilience of Baltimore and a celebration of those who embody our core values: Stewardship, Performance, Trust, Respect, Innovation, and Equity. For two transformative hours, we pause to recognize these tireless efforts and to reaffirm our collective commitment to a brighter future for all Baltimoreans.

This year, as I prepare to present our state on annual community impact, I am struck by the stories behind the data—narratives of lives changed, communities strengthened, and barriers overcome. These are not just statistics; they are the building blocks of a more equitable Baltimore.

To our sponsors and supporters, your presence at this event is invaluable. By standing with us, you amplify the voices of those we serve and invest in Baltimore's most promising solutions.

Your participation is not merely symbolic; it is a catalyst for change, a vote of confidence in our city's potential.

As we come together this November, we do so not just as professionals or organizations, but as a family united in purpose. In a world that often emphasizes division, our Annual Meeting stands as a powerful reminder of what we can achieve when we collaborate with authenticity and shared vision. I invite you to join us in this celebration of impact, resilience, and hope. Together, let us honor the year's achievements, forge new partnerships, and recommit ourselves to the vital work that lies ahead.

In unwavering dedication to Baltimore's children, youth, and adults,

Demaune A. Millard

President & CEO, Family League
