Purpose of this Investment

- Family League approaches youth justice work through the lenses of prevention and early intervention by implementing a justice diversion program partnership strategy to address and respond to systemic inequities impacting Baltimore City youth with programming that supports youth in meeting their basic needs, accessing services, receiving education assistance, employment opportunities, mentoring and other supportive services to meet their immediate safety needs and provide positive engagement opportunities.
- After collaborating on interagency workgroups to operationalize recommendations associated with Mayor Scott's Prioritizing Our Youth pillars, Family League's investment in the Thriving Youth strategy responds to identified community needs through a strengths-based, trauma-informed lens.

- Family League's Thriving Youth Strategy was implemented in FY21 and continues to focus on prevention initial involvement with the juvenile justice system and early intervention for young people who have been involved with the juvenile justice system with the goal of preventing future involvement.
- Family League is committed to reducing juvenile recidivism rates among the youth in the City of Baltimore by increasing opportunities for community-based programs and services for justice involved youth that work to prevent and reduce the impact of incarceration on children, families, and communities.

Priority Areas

- Thriving Youth Programming will deliver programming and services throughout FY26 that can include: education and workforce development, housing, health, social emotional, financial wellness; legal matters, barrier removal, and mentorship.
- Baltimore City male and female youth ages 11-17 who are at risk of juvenile justice involvement and/or re-engagement with the juvenile justice system will be eligible for support through Thriving Youth Programming.
- Thriving Youth Programming can also support youth receiving services that focus on: re-entry planning and navigation for detained youth and their families with community-based programming focused on addressing the holistic needs of youth once they re-renter their communities, particularly around re-engaging with school

Project Description

*The Thriving Youth Program will Deliver:

- Community-based programming for justice involved youth and youth who are at risk of juvenile justice involvement that work to prevent and reduce the impact of incarceration on children, families, and communities;
- Programming can include nine key areas of education and workforce development, housing, health, social emotional, and financial wellness, legal matters, barrier removal, and mentorship;
- Programming that also provides cradle-to-career solutions or place-based workforce development opportunities, wraparound support, or collaborate with other partners to holistically meet the needs of the program participants and their families that offer support along a continuum ranging from prevention to intervention; and
- Programming that grounds work in building authentic relationships with young people and the community.
