

Family League Releases 2024 Annual Report: "Doing What Matters" Scores Impact Across the City

Strategic $19+ Million Investment Reaches 14,000+ Baltimore Residents Through Data-Driven Community Solutions

Baltimore, MD – May 14, 2025 – Family League proudly presents its 2024 Annual Report, highlighting positive community impact through strategic investments and collaborative partnerships. Under the theme "Doing What Matters," the organization invested $19+ million across 84 funded partners, reaching more than 14,000 children, youth, and adults citywide.

Key achievements include supporting 275+ families through home visiting services, engaging 3,400 students in high-quality out-of-school programming, and distributing 16,490 pounds of fresh produce to address food insecurity. The organization launched its innovative INSIGHT Intelligence platform, revolutionizing data management across partner networks, while partner satisfaction soared to 94%—up from 80% in FY23.

The annual report showcases significant program expansions, including $1.5 million invested in summer programming across 18 zip codes, serving 1,676 youth with 86% attendance rates. Family League collaborated with the Governor's Office for Children to advance Maryland's groundbreaking ENOUGH initiative, positioning Baltimore to leverage state resources for anti-poverty strategies. The organization established a Community Advisory Board to amplify local voices and delivered over 400 professional development workshop participants throughout the year.

Notable innovations included streamlined contracting processes through portfolio-specific templates and enhanced Results-Based Accountability frameworks. Major investments encompassed $12 million for school-age and high school programs, over $6 million for early childhood initiatives, and strategic partnerships spanning juvenile justice, social services, and housing systems.

"This report demonstrates our unwavering commitment to dismantling systemic barriers through strategic action," said Demaune A. Millard, President & CEO. "Every investment, partnership, and program represents our collective effort to create equity for all Baltimoreans."
