INTRODUCTION

Since 1991, Family League of Baltimore (Family League) has been the designated Local Management Board for the City of Baltimore. Family League's mission statement is: Family League works collaboratively to support data-informed, community-driven solutions that align resources to dismantle systemic barriers that limit the possibilities for children, families, and communities. Family League believes that racial equity plays a pivotal role in realizing its organizational vision and that it can be achieved when race no longer determines the life trajectory of people in Baltimore. As such, Family League applies a racial equity lens to its policies, practices, organizational culture, and grantmaking.

Family League's work seeks to dismantle systemic barriers that limit the possibilities for children, families, and communities. We focus on four priority Results Areas: Cradle to Career Education, Healthy Families, Economically Secure Families, and Safe and Thriving Families.

As a careful steward of the funds awarded by the City, the State of Maryland, and federal and private entities, Family League braids its resources together to maximize the impact of each dollar invested in support of these results areas. We leverage these resources to serve Baltimore's children, youth, and families through our participation as a convener, implementation lead, or partner in numerous collaborative spaces.

PURPOSE OF THIS INVESTMENT

Family League, in partnership with Baltimore City Public School and the Mayor's Office and City Council, is committed to supporting students in a collective effort to surround them with opportunities for success and to remove the barriers that keep them from attending school regularly and being engaged and supported in school, at home, and in their communities. This investment will support the implementation of high-quality Out of School Time (OST) programming at Baltimore City Community Schools.

By layering OST programming into a Community School, partners can leverage the existing infrastructure of the school and more holistically respond to the needs of students and their families. OST programs provide youth and young adults with a safe place to explore new ideas, connect with others, build skills including 21st-century skills, find new talents, and experience success during the times when school is not in session. Through OST, participants can engage with experiences focused on personal and academic growth as well as enrichment. High-quality OST programs support academic success, develop leadership, build skills, and nurture talents and interests so participants can achieve in their own unique ways.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

DEFINITIONS

- Average Daily Attendance (ADA): The average number of students who attend the program compared to the number of enrolled students who could have come to the program for a given time period.
- Collaboration with Diverse Stakeholders: Youth live and learn within a continuum of settings, including their homes, schools, and other learning environments, both during the school day and after school, as well as during the summer. Successful OST programming depends on partnerships with families, school administration, participating youth, and communities, having shared ownership (planning, implementation and oversight) and accountability to support overall success.
- Community School (CS) Strategy: The Community School (CS) is an integrated and multidisciplinary strategy to promote student and community success. The purpose of the Community School Strategy is to ensure all students in Baltimore City Public Schools are learning and succeeding through an integrated focus on academics, health and social services, child and community development, college and career readiness, family and community engagement. The CS Strategy is an evidence-based approach to addressing inequities in areas of concentrated poverty. All stakeholders come together to build relationships and power to challenge systems that perpetuate inequities, while creating positive school climates that facilitate learning, growth, and strong, vibrant families and communities.
- Comprehensive Programs: Funded programs must offer diverse, culturally relevant, in-person programming that supports academic growth, enrichment, and youth well-being. Programs must operate for a minimum of 100 days, at least 12 hours per week (no less than 4 days/week and 3 hours/day). Scheduling may be flexible (e.g., before school, evenings, weekends, school breaks) to meet school and participant needs.

- Daily Required Components
 - Academic Enrichment & Support: Minimum 45 minutes per day of academic content (e.g., tutoring, project-based learning, literacy or math interventions)
 - Diverse Enrichment Activities: Programming should include at least one area such as:
 - STEM
 - Arts (visual, music, performing)
 - Sports & Recreation
 - Technology
 - Cultural & creative exploration
 - Life Skills development
 - Financial Literacy
 - Nutritious Meals or Snacks: Healthy meals/snacks must be provided through CACFP or another approved source.
- Recommended Program Enhancements: Programs are encouraged to integrate:
 - Hands-on, experiential learning
 - Service learning or community projects
 - College & career exploration
 - Youth-led learning and social activities
 - Wrap-around and emergency supports

Note: For grades K–8, at least 30 minutes of staff-facilitated physical activity per day is strongly recommended.

- Diversity: This refers to the various backgrounds and races that comprise a community, nation, or other groupings; in many cases the term diversity does not just acknowledge the existence of diverse backgrounds, race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, etc., but implies an appreciation of these differences.
- Engaged learning: Culturally relevant, meaningful activities or learning opportunities that expand youth and serve their cognitive, physical, social, and emotional development while responding to their interests and building skills for success in school, work and beyond. Program design includes engaged learning that encourages participants to develop and/or enhance diverse skills (e.g., soft skills, social-emotional skills, etc.) through activities.
 - Cultural relevance requires holding and practicing a set of congruent behaviors, attitudes, and policies that enable effective interactions with all children and youth within a cross-cultural framework. Cultural relevance requires the consistent application of behaviors, attitudes, and policies that are aligned with the diverse cultural identities, experiences, and values of the children and youth being served. This alignment enables meaningful and respectful interactions across cultural differences and supports inclusive, affirming learning environments within a cross-cultural framework.

- Equity & Inclusion: Successful OST programs promote equity and inclusion through designing and implementing culturally responsive programs, policies, practices and systems that support historically marginalized and excluded populations:
 - Equity: The practice of righting disparity; ensuring every young person has what they need to thrive. It involves fair, but not necessarily equal, treatment recognizing and addressing systemic barriers that may impact access, participation, or outcomes.
 - Inclusion: The practice or policy of providing equal access to opportunities and resources for individuals who might otherwise be excluded or marginalized including those from diverse racial, ethnic, linguistic, gender, disability, and socioeconomic backgrounds.
- Health, Safety and Well-Being: Quality programs take a holistic approach to health, safety and well-being for all students and staff. This includes helping youth build social and emotional skills, providing opportunities for physical activity, supporting mental health, and ensuring access to nutritious foods. Youth thrive in safe and supportive environments, which is vital for fostering development in all areas,
- Intentional programming: Programs and program activities aligned to explicit goals set for meeting young people's needs. Program design addresses school community needs/priorities and implements innovative practices/strategies that lead to purposeful change and outcomes for participants. Programming employs a holistic approach and uses data consistently to support continuous improvement efforts and quality programming for young people.
- Learning Environment & Curriculum: Programming provides critical supports for youth and families by fostering growth through social interactions, relationships, stimulating physical environments, and enriching opportunities. Youth benefit from high-quality environments and experiences in many ways, including improved self-esteem, self-awareness, and self-control; enhanced communication between peers and within families; a genuine sense of purpose; a deeper understanding of diversity; and advancements in developmental outcomes and academic achievement.
- Out-of-School Time (OST): High-quality learning opportunities are at the core of Community Schools in Baltimore, providing individualized support for students. Out of School Time (OST) is a program that offers before school, afterschool, weekend, school breaks, and summer learning opportunities for children at a Community School. It utilizes a youth development lens to enhance the core academic program of the Community School and aligns with classroom learning. OST provides students with the opportunity to explore new ideas, build 21st-century skills, discover new talents, and experience success. Diverse enrichments within OST emphasize student voice and choice, real-world learning, community problem-solving, and engage students as independent learners. Family League’s OST programming is structured around quality standards and frameworks designed to engage youth, strengthen their assets and skills, ultimately supporting positive youth outcomes.

- Recruiting and Retaining Diverse Youth: Recruitment includes having a plan or a diverse collective of strategies to recruit and retain diverse students, including those most in need of additional support, resources, and experiences. Recruitment and retention involve implementing intentional, equity-centered strategies to engage students who reflect the full diversity of the school community—particularly those with the highest needs. This includes students who may be impacted by systemic barriers related to race, language, disability, income, housing status, immigration status, or other factors. An effective approach includes a comprehensive and culturally responsive plan that is tailored to the specific demographics and needs of the school community, builds trust and accessibility for families and students, and prioritizes ongoing engagement to ensure youth not only enroll but remain actively and meaningfully involved in programming.
- Safe and Supportive Space/Climate: It is essential to nurture environments that support the developmental, emotional, physical, and mental well-being of youth and staff. Safe spaces (emotionally and physically) are tailored to the needs of participants. Positive climates are prioritized that include healthy relationships and bonding between participants and staff. In addition, there are intentional activities designed to make youth feel a sense of belonging and inclusion regardless of gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, disabilities, or other factors.
- Staffing Plan: A staffing plan is a strategic framework that outlines how an organization will recruit, structure, and support its personnel to effectively meet program goals and compliance requirements. In the context of Out-of-School Time (OST) programs, a strong staffing plan includes clearly defined roles and responsibilities, alignment of staff-to-student ratios, appropriate qualifications for each position, and systems for supervision and accountability. Successful youth development programs ensure that staffing reflects the diversity of the communities served, and that all staff—especially frontline staff and OST Site Managers—receive ongoing, relevant professional development. A comprehensive staffing plan supports not just program implementation, but also the creation of safe, inclusive, and high-quality learning environments that contribute to positive outcomes for youth.
- Strengths-Based, Family-Centered Approach: A framework that places family as its focal point instead of the child, focusing on family strengths and families’ ability to problem solve; incorporates collaboration between schools, families, and service providers, emphasizing partnerships and community building

- Youth development: The natural process of a young person growing and maturing; the philosophy of working with young people in a manner that is strengths-based. Youth development is the philosophy and practice of working with young people in a strengths-based manner, recognizing and building upon their existing assets, interests, and potential. This approach emphasizes meaningful relationships, skill-building, and youth voice to create supportive environments that foster personal growth, resilience, and long-term success.
- Youth empowerment: Youth empowerment is both a goal and a practice through which young people gain the knowledge and skills that support their ability to create change in their lives and the world in which they live youth leadership. It involves creating spaces where youth are trusted as leaders, decision-makers, and change agents within their communities and programs.
- Youth leadership: Youth leadership is the practice of young people using their knowledge, skills, perspectives, behaviors, and aspirations to influence, motivate, and inspire others toward positive action. It involves creating opportunities for youth to take initiative, guide their peers, and contribute meaningfully to decision-making processes within their communities, schools, and programs.
- Youth voice: Youth voice is the active inclusion of young people's ideas, opinions, experiences, insights, and knowledge in shaping programs, policies, and decisions that affect their lives. It involves creating meaningful forums and roles where youth can share their perspectives, influence outcomes, and be recognized as essential contributors to the learning and leadership process.

Youth voice, choice, and engagement include intentional opportunities for youth to play a meaningful role in program planning, design and implementation including but not limited to exercising choice and access to leadership development/roles.
